

CONNECTICUT CHAMBER ORCHESTRA

PROGRAM: "From Bach to Broadway"

Sunday, November 11, 2007

Concerto in D Minor for Two Violins (arr.): Vivace	J.S. Bach
Divertimento in D, K.136: Allegro, Andante, Presto	W.A. Mozart
Meditation from "Thais" Bernice Stochek Friedson, violin soloist	J. Massenet
Hungarian Dance #5 in G Minor	J. Brahms
Serenade: Overture and Waltz	P. I. Tchaikowsky
Simple Symphony: Frolicsome Finale	B. Britten
Medley from "My Fair Lady "	F. Lowe

Connecticut Chamber Orchestra:

FOUNDER-CONDUCTOR: Sayard Stone

VIOLINS: Bernice Stochek Friedson, concertmaster and violin soloist; Nate Brown, Miriam Giannone, Corinne Metter

VIOLA: Cathy Dobbs

CELLO: Charlotte Moulyn

DOUBLE BASS: Dennis Hyde

Conductor, music director, and founder of the Connecticut Chamber Orchestra, Sayard Stone has made guest appearances with the Countergebouw Orchestra in Amsterdam, performed with the Munich and Vienna Chamber Orchestras, and recorded with Bavarian radio. He also studied at Tanglewood under the direction of Leonard Bernstein.

Bernice Stochek Friedson, violin soloist and concert master, is the director of the MACH (Music and Arts for Humanity) School of Music in Bridgeport. She began her career at age seven as first violinist with the Bridgeport Symphony, playing on a violin hand-crafted by her father.

Upcoming Music@the Library Events

Sunday, December 9 at 2:00 pm

"Courting the Seasons" with Pamela Wyn Shannon on vocals and guitar, and New England fiddler and folk singer Lissa Schneckenburger . This is a special program featuring traditional and original pastoral songs celebrating the seasons, nature and rural rambling. The program will include the music of Ireland and the British Isles along with songs in Gaelic.

Sunday, January 13 at 2:00 pm

Swing for Jazz Quintet charms audiences with enduring melodies and wonderful lyrics from songs that topped the Hit Parade charts.

Sunday, February 10 at 2:00 pm

Cumulus. Details in the next Library newsletter or check the Library website, www.westportlibrary.org.